

UNIFLEX.

Uniflex is a flexible flue gas system that brings huge advantages, particularly when dealing with slanted chimney shafts. The Uniflex system is designed for all heat generators serviced by Unitec conduits.

Uniflex installed in a slanted shaft.

Advantage:

Uniflex is an excellent alternative to traditional systems, as there is no need for costly cutting and bricklaying work.